30 April 2026

Dear Mr Visser

Case: TLC SA Transportation and Logistic Consulting v Imex Logistics (Pty) Ltd & Another

Case No.: HC-MD-CIV-MOT-GEN-2026/00200

Subject: Rule 59 Security for Costs

1. The above-captioned matter, as well as our letter earlier today (30 April 2026), refers.
2. We have been informed by instructed counsel, who in passing bumped into your client's instructed counsel at the High Court this morning, that the security requested in our earlier notice will indeed be paid and provided.
3. This, to date and at the time of writing this letter, has not taken place yet. We do, however, accept that security will be provided forthwith. In light of this, we will now commence consulting with our client and preparing the answering affidavits.
4. Our client is only now able to instruct Advocate Jones, who is currently on brief, to prepare the answering affidavit. To do this, counsel needs to familiarise himself with the history of the matter, carefully peruse both the previous application and the present application, and consult with our client to prepare the answering affidavit.
5. It therefore follows that the answering papers will not be filed in line with the timelines in the amended notice of motion (30 April 2026). In this regard, we endeavour to file the answering papers on 4 May 2026.

Regards
