Dear Mr Visser

Case: TLC SA Transportation and Logistic Consulting v Imex Logistics (Pty) Ltd & Another

Case No.: HC-MD-CIV-MOT-GEN-2026/00200

Subject: Rule 59 Security for Costs – No Answering Affidavit Pending Security

1. We refer to the above matter and specifically to our Notice dated 28 April 2026 delivered in terms of High Court Rule 59(1), whereby our clients (the First and Second Respondents) demanded security for costs from your client (the Applicant) in the amount of N$500,000.00, for the reasons set out in that Notice.
2. Kindly take notice that until such time as the demanded security for costs is furnished by your client, our clients will not file any answering affidavit in response to the pending application. This position is necessitated by your client's status as a peregrinus and the outstanding security as formally requested.
3. We draw your attention to High Court Rule 59(4), which provides that if a party from whom security for costs is required fails or refuses to furnish such security within ten (10) days of the demand, the party entitled to security may apply to the managing judge, on notice, for an order that security be given and that the proceedings be stayed until compliance. In line with this rule (read together with Rule 59(5)), the managing judge is empowered to stay or even dismiss the proceedings, or strike out pleadings, should the required security not be provided within the time prescribed or fixed by the Court.
4. In light of the fact that this is an urgent application, we cannot afford your client ten (10) days as per the normal rule, and security was requested by close of business yesterday.
5. Accordingly, in the absence of your client furnishing security for costs as demanded, we hold instructions to proceed with an application to the Honourable Judge Sibeya under Rule 59(4)
